What you need to know about V-EMB….

Reminder: The full Packaging User Agreement (PuA) always apply – this is only a summary.

What is Volvo Returnable Packaging?

V-EMB is owned by Volvo Group and is provided only to support safe, efficient, sustainable transport to Volvo-approved receivers.

Before You Use the Packaging

- A signed PuA is required to use Volvo returnable packaging.
- Order packaging in the LES System

Your Responsibilities

- Report every shipment in the LES System
- Keep LES balance updated
- Send only to Volvo- approved users
- Perform physical stock takes
- Have approved alternative Packaging available

Deliveries of empty Packaging

- Packaging is delivered in bundles
- Order Deadline: Mondays 23:59 CET for delivery in the following week. Orders received after the deadline will be scheduled one week later.
- Delivery planning: Volvo schedules delivery by week, not by specific delivery dates.
- You must be able to unload from the side.

Time Limits and Costs

- Volvo will charge fees for overstock beyond 21-calender days.
- When sending packaging towards a Non-Volvo site, Volvo will charge a usage fee to the sender.
- Charges for unexplained lost or damaged packaging.

Stock Levels

- You must monitor this and react in case of deviations
- Volvo may reduce ordered quantities based on stock level.
- Investigation needed in case of discrepancies.
